CONTENTS OF VOL. II.

No. V.

Page

REFORMS IN THE LAW, No. II.—The Law of Real Property 1

Roads and Road Making 26

MORNINGS AMONG THE COBWEBS; No. II.—Archbishop Abbot's Geography—State of Spain in 1634—Wonderful Trees—Reception of the First Accounts of the Opossum, or Kangaroo—Insignificance of Prussia in the beginning of the Seventeenth Century—Anthropophagi—Notes to the above 34

The Husband's Complaint 42

Latest Intelligence of our Water Companies 44

The Religious World displayed, in a series of Sketches, chiefly from the Life: No, I.—Rev. Edward Irving 46

Scotch Note Bill 49

Historical Persons and their Portraits 63

CONTEMPORARY FOREIGN AUTHORS AND STATESMEN: No. VII.—Madame de Genlis 76

Salmonia; or Days of Fly-fishing 79

Unambitious Love 92

OUR NATIONAL ARCHITECTURE; § I.—Public Buildings in the Department of the Office of Works 94

DIARY FOR THE MONTH OF JULY 112

The Dreamings of an Idealist 122

THE EDITOR'S ROOM: No. V.—Descent of the Danube—French Pronunciation—Italian Works—Margate Guide—Southern Coast of England—Properties of the Malvern Water—Panorama of Matlock—Seven Years of the King's Theatre—Memoirs of the Duc de Rovigo—State of the British Empire—Thoughts on Power and Greatness—Beauties of Don Juan—Mrs. Richardson's Poems—Etonian out of Bonds—Letters from Cambridge—Babylon the Great 126

No. VI.

	Page
Private Bill of the Session 1828	145
Journal of a Chaplain in the Army of the Pretender	161
Characters of Contemporary Foreign Authors and Statesmen: No. VIII.—De Beranger	173
Some Account of a late Trial for Murder—not Corder's	179
Historic Survey of German Poetry	188
Our National Architecture; § II.—The New Churches	168
Family Portaits, No. IV.—The Page	032
On the Secrecy of Letters, in France	218
The Pleasures of Ornithology	223
Notes on Art:—The French Pictures exhibiting in Pall Mall	229
The First Time of Asking	231
The Native Irish	236
Illustrations of Virginia Water	247
A Thought of Harrow	250
Dairy for the Month of August	251
Anatomy	256
The Editor's Room, No. VI:—The American Quarterly Reviews	271

No. VII.

Reforms in the Law: No. III.—The Magistracy	287
Dramatic Literature	298
Elementary Education: No. I.	303
On the Present State of Opinion in Ireland	211
Mornings among the Cobwebs: No. III.—Puffs against Tobacco	330
Comparative View of the State of Trade in the Years 1826, 7, 8	343
Duke of Newcastle's Opinions upon Toleration and Liberality	355
Gale of the Waters	369
An Account of the Present State of Tripoli	361
Biographies of Dr. Parr	367
The Religious World Displayed:—No. II. Dr. Chalmers	376
Pelham: or the Adventures of a Gentleman	381
Diary for the Month of September	389
War of Independence in South America	406

Page

THE EDITOR'S ROOM: No. VII.—My Early Days—Pinnock's Early Catechism and History—Treatise on Stammering—Lyric Offerings—Wilmot Warwick—Foreign Review—Lord Byron's Monument 422

No. VIII.

Opening of the London University 431
The late Harvest 447
Last Day of the Year in Vienna 454
The Narrative of a Convict 457
FAMILY PORTRAITS, No. V.—Good Sir Walter . . . 460
Drummond of Hawthornden; by a Lover of Old English Poetry 476
Arrest of Mr. Lawless 481
Quarter Sessions 491
A Woman's History 493
Elementary Education: No. II. 504
Mr. Haydon's Picture of Chairing the Members . . . 507
DIARY FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 517
Some Account of the Pauper-Colonies in Holland . . 537
THE EDITOR'S ROOM: No. VIII.—Life in India—Beauties of the Poets—The Annuals: Forget me Not—Friendship's Offering—The Anniversary—Winter's Wreath—The Amulet—Literary Souvenir

No. IX.

Comparative Statistics of France and Great Britain . . 575
The English Almanacs 591
The Money Market 607
Traps for Human Beings 615
Monti 619
On Sympathetic Numbers 629
Fagging 633
On Copyright 645
The Minister of Inverdonhuil 660

Page

DIARY for the MONTH of NOVEMBER 676

Sonnet 689

THE EDITOR'S ROOM, No. IX. Atlantic Souvenir—Southern Review—The Keepsake—Lord Lyttleton's Letters—Juvenile Annuals—The Disowned—Tales of Great St. Bernard—Sir Richard Phillips's Personal Tour—Le Petit Bijou . 690